

New Jersey citizens are very happy with their stringent do-not-call regulation. Among other benefits, we are finally able to have peaceful dinners without the phone ringing off the hook almost every day. Please do NOT lower our "standard of living" to the federal level. Quite the opposite, as a public servant, you should resist the political pressure and raise every U.S. citizen's quality of life, which does not even cost the government a dime.